The faueral of Mr. Thomas Flynn took place at St. Dominie's church yesterday morning, and was largely attended. The Knights of St. Patrick were present under command of Mr. Jno. T. Clarke, with Pistorio's band. The interment was at Mt. Olivet.

At a meeting of the class of 1883, of the medical department of Howard university, held Thursday evening, P. W. Roberts, esq., chief of the division of accounts of the Indian bureau, was chosen valedictorian of the class. The class numbers 30, and is one of the largest ever connected with the university. It is expected that the commencement exercises will take place Thursday evening, March 8.

Wanted to be a Detective. "I wants to git a application for the police force," said a gaunt specimen of the ebony race as he walked into Capt, Vernon's office race as he walked into Capt. Vernon's office at police headquarters the other day. "I was told that if I comed here I could get 'pinted."

"What! do you want to be a policeman? Do you think you could pass a physical examination?" asked the captain. "How tall are you?"

"Doan know, but reckou am mos' fore feet," realied the devices immostable, evidently
